

Karen Thompson has been an essential part of our Travel Ambassador Team, previously serving as the dedicated social media manager for Ultimate Soul Escape. She played a vital role in managing the company's social media presence, creating and curating content, scheduling posts, and monitoring engagement.

In addition to her role at Ultimate Soul Escape, Karen is a multifaceted entrepreneur with a diverse skill set. She operates her preservation business, RIMTLLC, based in the state of Georgia. Furthermore, she is a licensed real estate agent in both Georgia and New York, boasting a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management. Karen's extensive background in business and real estate brings a wealth of expertise to our team, contributing to the overall success of our endeavors.

What truly sets Karen apart is her unwavering dedication to the Ultimate Soul Escape mission. She has been an integral part of our team, offering her unique perspective and valuable insights. Karen also played an instrumental role in assisting the CEO with budgeting and various aspects of social media management.

The sisterhood shared between Karen, the CEO, and the group leaders, Team Lady Diamonds, is the bedrock of our success. This close-knit bond creates a balanced and harmonious environment where each member's contributions are not only valued but celebrated and appreciated. Despite the multitude of responsibilities in her life and various businesses, Karen consistently dedicates her time and expertise to our operational preparations, serving as a true testament to her unwavering commitment to our shared vision.
