

Tracey Turner, a retired Law Enforcement Official and Entrepreneur in Real Estate investments, is a dedicated Travel Ambassador for Ultimate Soul Escapes, where her extensive experience and knowledge greatly benefit the team. With five years of steadfast commitment to Ultimate Soul Escapes, Tracey brings a wealth of personal travel insights and a sharp eye for potential entertainment talent. Her discerning taste for quality travel accommodations enhances the overall experience for our cherished guests.

In addition to her role with Ultimate Soul Escapes, Tracey owns and operates Turner925 Properties, a business specializing in real estate, credit repair, and we rehabilitate properties for the purpose of equitable sales. Tracey's team offers prompt service and competitive pricing, complete with trucks equipped with onboard generators for properties without electrical service.

Tracey has a vision for the Ultimate Soul Escape Travel Family to evolve into a global travel and entertainment franchise, catering to individuals, friends, and families seeking ultimate vacation experiences. She is dedicated to fostering lifelong connections, creating cherished memories, and evoking endless smiles among our travelers.

Tracey's commitment to the team is unwavering, as she actively participates in meetings and consistently shares her invaluable insights. Her contributions extend beyond meetings; she played a pivotal role in the resort selection process, attending international site visits to ensure the best possible experiences for our travelers. Tracey's dedication shines through in all aspects of her work, including her involvement in media video production, and her willingness to step in and assist whenever needed underscores her unwavering commitment to the Ultimate Soul Escape mission.

Website: <http://www.Turner925Properties.com>